WINTER SPORTS MEET SCHEDULED

Competition Open to All Varsity Men Included

CUP FOR WINNING FRAT

All Winter Sports Candidates Must Take Part—Elimination for Williamston Meet and Eastern Championships

Entries for the Intra-Mural Winter Sports meet which will take place Jan. 30 must be in the hands of Director Cowell or Coach Perley by 4 p. m., next Wednesday afternoon. The competition will be open to all students of the University, varsity men included, and points will count toward the inter-fraternity cup as well as the cups for the individual events.

Whether or not points made by varsity men will count toward final fraternity scores has not yet been determined, but the matter will be decided by the Intra-Mural A. A. within the week, and will be announced before the meet. However, Coach Perley states that all candidates for the Winter Sports team must take part in the competition as the work done in this meet will be the basis for the choice of the men who will make the trip to Williamstown to enter the Eastern Championships to be held there Feb. 3, 4, and 5.

The cup for the winner of the ski cross-country race has been held twice by Sam Stowell of the class of '24 and last year by Eddie Bruce, '27. It must be earned three times to become the permanent property of an individual. The trophy for the ski jump was won for the third time last year by Capt. Michelson and so at the present time no prize can be offered. The inter-fraternity cup has been twice the property of Lambda Chi Alpha and once of Theta Chi.

The scoring system to be used will be five points for a first place, three for a second, and one for third. The quarter mile race for speed skaters will be run off in heats of not more than four men, two men to qualify.

The schedule of events follows:

- 11 a. m. Seven mile ski race starting and finishing at Gym.
- 1.30 p. m. Five mile snow-shoe race, starting and finishing at Little-hale farm.
- 1.30 p. m. Ski proficiency; Little-hale farm.
- 2.30 p. m. One mile ski race; Little-hale farm.
- 3.30 p. m. Ski jumping at Beech Hill.
- 5.00 p. m. Quarter mile skating race at University Pond.
- 5.15 p. m. Figure skating at University Pond.
- 5.45 p. m. Two mile skating race at University Pond.

UNIVERSITY FACULTY MAKES PLANS FOR COMING YEAR

At a meeting of the University Faculty Monday afternoon, the Calendar for next year was adopted. Freshmen week is to be continued as it has been, and dates were set for the Winter Carnival of 1927.

Mr. Henderson, Professor Babcock and Dean French were appointed to serve a three year term on the Christian Work Advisory Board. It was suggested that Commencement Exercises be reduced from four to three days, but this motion did not survive a vote.

“PREXY” CHALLENGES DIRECTOR COWELL

Speakers at Outing Club Meeting Urge Support of “Out-of-Doors Program” for Students—Carnival Plans Discussed

At a meeting of the Outing Club held in the Commons Building Monday evening, President Hetzel stated that he stands squarely behind the organization's program for the promotion of out-of-doors activities for the student body and further announced by way of challenge that if Director of Athletics, William H. Cowell will appear at the coming Winter Carnival in a gaily decorated sports costume, he will follow suit and will participate in the snow-shoeing, skiing and other recreational activities of the occasion.

The meeting was held primarily for the purpose of discussing plans for the carnival, but during the proceedings it was also announced that in the future the club will pursue its activities through the fall and spring terms as well as in its present capacity of winter sports mentor.

Director Cowell and Coach Perley then told of the enthusiasm for all out-of-doors life which they had observed in the visitors at Lake Placid during their recent trip there with the Winter Sports team and urged that everything possible be done to make students realize the importance of this phase of college life. Capt. Pettee in a short talk asked for the support of the fraternities for this program and also for the carnival plans which had been outlined.

The meeting, which was fostered by the Outing Club, was attended by the Winter Carnival committee, by representatives from the various fraternities, and by publicity agents on the campus.

FIRST DISCUSSION GROUPS SUCCESSFUL

Great Interest Shown by Students—Idea Proves Popular in Fraternities—Topics for Future Meetings Chosen

The first meetings of the discussion groups were held Tuesday evening, in eleven fraternity houses and at the Commons Clubroom, with an average of thirty men attending each group. In most cases the discussions were so interesting that they ran over their allotted time of three quarters of an hour. “What Are We In College For?” was the topic discussed in almost all of the groups.

The interest shown in the discussion idea was so great that undoubtedly these groups will be a “permanent fixture” at New Hampshire. The faculty leaders themselves seemed to enjoy them as much as did the students. Among the topics suggested for future discussions are: “Co-education,” “Smoking on the Campus,” “The Benefits Derived from a College Education,” and “Fraternity Ideals.”

At the leaders' group in methods, conducted by Mr. Lovell, prior to the group meetings, the technique of leading groups was discussed, and emphasis was laid on getting the students to voice their own views. Mr. Bishop remarked that the most important thing was to let the students think for themselves for once, while their instructors remain on the sidelines. “Dad” Henderson summed up the job of the leaders by comparing it to that of an umpire; simply “to keep the boys from fighting too much.”

The men serving as leaders are: “Dad” Henderson, at Alpha Gamma Rho; Mr. C. T. Lloyd, at Theta Upsilon Omega; Prof. James, at Kappa Sigma; Prof. Slobin, at Phi Alpha; Mr. E. L. Getchell, at Phi Delta Upsilon; Mr. A. O. Morse, at Theta Chi; Dean Case, at Alpha Tau Omega; Lieut. Gilmore, at Delta Pi Epsilon; Mr. N. L. Alexander, at Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Mr. T. W. Kalijarvi, at Lambda Chi Alpha; and Mr. Bishop, at the Commons group. Phi Mu Delta is also planning to start a group next Tuesday, under the leadership of Prof. W. Smith.

VARSITY WINS OPENING GAME

Passing and Defensive Playing Features Game

OPPONENTS OUTCLASSED

New Hampshire Opens Season With a Victory—Teamwork of Players Impressive—Nicora and Davis Star

The varsity basketball team opened up its season last Friday night by decisively defeating the University of Maine team by the score of 29 to 13. The New Hampshire Quintet outclassed its rivals in every department of the game. The passing and defensive playing of the victors was a treat for the spectators and the pre-season critics who witnessed the contest.

Nicora and Davis were the outstanding stars of the game. “Nick” stopped every play that came his way, while Davis, after being shifted to a forward position replacing Cotton, sneaked four sensational baskets. Craig also showed up well, as did Taylor, Kelsea and Captain Cotton. Cotton was forced to leave the game during the first half due to excessive fouls on his part.

The game started off with a bang. Maine scored first with a long shot from the side of the floor. Within a few minutes, however, Craig came through and caged two neat under-the-basket shots that put New Hampshire in the running. The first half was hard played and ended in favor of New Hampshire by one point, ten to nine.

Coach Cowell was given an opportunity of trying out some of his vast army of subs. Twelve men were used in this opening game and every one of the subs showed up well. Kelsea, a letter man of last year, played guard for the major part of the game, teaming up with Nicora. These two men, Nicora and Kelsea, are two of the best defensive players New Hampshire has ever had. Kelsea caged a couple of goals as his share of the onslaught.

Of the subs, Steve Slayton and Bridge showed up well in the game. Slayton, a guard, was used in a forward position and he showed his ability as a team player by his fast and accurate passing.

There was only one department in which the New Hampshire men proved to be deficient, that of foul shooting. Time and again the regulars had free throws for the goal, but only five points were scored in this way. The problem of the coach now is to develop the scrub teams to such an extent that the varsity players can be given some opposition in the daily scrimmages.

The next game is with the Portland A. C. on Saturday night. This team is not as strong as in previous years, as shown by the impressive win of the U. of Maine-quintet over the club team on the night following the Maine-New Hampshire game.

The varsity team continues to practice daily and scrimmages with the freshmen aggregation will be held at least twice a week in the future.

GIRLS' DEBATE TEAM WINS FIRST CONTEST

Large Audience at Community House—Official Decision to New Hampshire, but Popular Vote Favors Radcliffe—Dr. Richards Presides

The Women's Varsity debating team defeated the Radcliffe College team in the first women's debate ever held by New Hampshire before a large audience at the Community House last Thursday evening. The subject was, “Resolved, that the segregation of the sexes in American colleges and universities is preferable to co-education.”

The Radcliffe team, consisting of Miss Nina Ridenour, '26, of Panama and California, Miss Frances L. Cooper-Marshall, '28, of London, England, Miss Margaret G. MacGregor, '28, of Manchester, N. H., and as alternate, Miss Catherine Beattie, '28, of Littleton, N. H., supported the affirmative. The New Hampshire team, defending the negative, consisted of Miss Dorothy Davis, '28, of Rochester, N. H., Miss Gwendolyn Jones, '27, of Concord, N. H., Miss Gladys Harris, '27, of Manchester, N. H., and as alternate, Miss Carolyn Woods, '28, of Epping, N. H.

Dr. A. E. Richards, Ph. D., head of the Department of English, presided. There was a single judge, Mr. Hal R. Eaton, headmaster of the Central High School, Manchester, N. H. The Radcliffe girls, supporting the more difficult side of the question, showed a finesse and polish that comes only with experience. The New Hampshire team made an excellent impression on its first appearance, and was awarded the judge's decision because of better arguments. Before Mr. Eaton's decision was opened, a hand vote of the audience was taken. The opinion was about two and one-half to one in favor of Radcliffe. Slips were also collected from the audience and the count gave a vote of fifty-three to thirty-nine in favor of Radcliffe.

During their stay in Durham, the Radcliffe girls were entertained at the Alpha Xi Delta House where they were guests at an informal tea in their honor after the debate.

REGISTRY OF ROOMS BY BLUE KEY IS COMPLETED

The Blue Key Society completed its registry of accommodations which will be available during the carnival and has started the assignments of rooms. Students are asked to co-operate with the society in this service, as it is only by this means that an accurate record can be kept.

When a student desires, accepts, or finds he is unable to get a registered room, he is requested to notify Floyd P. MacDonald at the Kappa Sigma House, telephone 59-4. As most of the rooms are double, it is suggested that two guests use the same room.

MEN DEBATERS OPPOSE TUFTS ON FEBRUARY 11

The first men's debate of the year will take place at the Community House February 11, with Tufts as opponents. The question will be, “Resolved, that the United States should join the League of Nations.” New Hampshire will support the affirmative, Tufts the negative. The New Hampshire team will consist of Paul S. Johnson, '27, Cleveland Sleeper, '27, and John Neville, '27. Twelve minutes will be allowed for each main speech and six minutes for the rebuttal. There will be a single judge whose decision will be official.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES AUTHORIZES NEW “TIME UNIT” CREDIT SYSTEM

Gives Permission for Complete Plans for New Liberal Arts Classroom Building With Construction Bids

CIVIL ENGINEERING COURSE TO BE OFFERED

COUNCIL ENFORCES THE POINT SYSTEM

To Have a Register Board in the New Hampshire Office—Operation of Rule Leaves Positions Open to Newcomers

The Student Council has begun a strict enforcement of the point system. The maximum number of points at present allowed each student is 20. Since the last issue of THE NEW HAMPSHIRE many students have resigned positions and the Council has begun its work of forcing the rest to comply with the rule. To make the number of points each student holds easily accessible to the Council as well as to the student body the following system has been devised.

There will be placed on the wall of The New Hampshire office the large bulletin board that formerly hung in “T.” Hall. On this there will be a place for each officer or member of all organizations involved in the point system. On the card inserted for the office holders will be their name, address, the date elected, and the number of points that the position counts. The secretaries of each organization on the campus are responsible to the secretary of the Student Council to see that all officers of their societies whose positions carry points are at all times correctly registered.

This system has been devised after much consideration and work on the part of the Student Council. It is simply the enforcement of a rule that the students ratified last June. With the expected cooperation on the part of the student body the scholastic standing of many who have been overburdened with outside activities will be greatly improved.

UNIVERSITY POND VERY POPULAR WITH STUDENTS

Hundreds of students make daily use of exercise and pleasure afforded by the University Pond, which was completed this fall. The pond is doubtless the most popular spot on the campus at present, because of the exceptional skating facilities. The ice is kept in excellent condition by the University at an approximate expense of twenty dollars a day. The ice is scraped and swept daily and snow prevents the use of the pond but a short time.

New York's “gay white way” has nothing on University Pond from 7 to 9 P. M. The gigantic arc-lights which were transported from the lower football practice field, make the pond almost as light as day; so much so, that hockey can be played at night without difficulty. The rink itself, is an important factor in the benefits afforded by this recent enterprise. It is kept in perfect condition for the varsity hockey games and practice, and arrangements are being made to obtain its use during Intra-Mural contests.

PLEDGING NOTICE

Delta Delta Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega announces the pledging of Augustav B. Kalijarvi of Worcester, Mass.

At their annual meeting held in Thompson Hall, Jan. 18, the Board of Trustees authorized three matters which, according to University authorities will be of lasting importance in the history of the institution. They gave their permission for the preparation of complete plans for a new recitation building for the College of Liberal Arts and the receipt of bids by the Real Estate committee; the addition of a course in civil engineering for the College of Technology, which will teach the fundamentals of sanitary, hydraulic and highway engineering; and, what is considered the most important matter of all, approved the new “time unit” plan which was submitted by the Administration Committee after being passed by the faculty.

The new plan will rate each course according to the amount of time which the average student will be required to spend on the subject during one week, including all time spent in the classroom and in outside preparation. If he goes to one three hour class a week, and the instructor assigns work which he estimates will take the average student two hours to prepare at home for each class, the student will receive nine hours credit for that particular course for one term. If he spends five hours a week in a laboratory, he will receive five hours credit; convocation will count as one hour, and military science will yield one credit for each actual hour's work. All time which a student should spend upon university activities for which he receives scholastic credit will be rated according to the hours and minutes which he must spend on it.

Six hundred hours will be required for graduation, and on a basis of twelve terms this makes fifty hours credit per term, or fifty hours work a week. The rule will apply to all students, women as well as men. The plan goes into effect next September and will be listed in the new catalogue.

"DEAD"

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE working in conjunction with the Student Council reprints the suggestion ballot that was run in last week's issue of the paper. The results were entirely unsatisfactory. Altogether, there were only about ten suggestions received from the entire student body and alumni.

Such a matter as a mascot for the University is not so trivial that it should be slighted as it has been. There must be some enthusiasm in the students. There apparently is more in the alumni than in those who are more directly associated with the University. Is it true that only 20% of the student body thinks? This statement was made by one of the faculty who is capable of knowing the facts. So far, the student body and the alumni combined have not shown enough spirit to even come up to that professor's percentage.

Students you have been labelled as "dead." Perhaps that is a strong statement, but at any rate it is no fallacy that the majority of students will accept what a few of the leaders do and will follow them like sheep. Take for instance, any of the big questions that are placed before the entire student body. One person will make a motion and the rest will accept it and grumble about it afterwards, simply because they have not the "nerve" to stand up and express their own opinions.

Today one of the biggest questions that the Student Council has had to contend with and decide is being placed before the individuals of this University. What shall we adopt as our mascot? To picture a student body sitting back and saying, "Let George do it," is hardly plausible, but it is a cold fact. For three weeks an appeal has been made and for the same number of weeks you have let the other fellow do it.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE or The Student Council could take the matter in its own hands and decide upon the mascot in any way it saw fit, but the results would not be gratifying. Some one would be sure to complain, and yet that someone is not among the few who have sent in a few suggestions.

In the next issue of THE NEW HAMPSHIRE, a formal ballot will be printed, continuing the list of the suggestions. The final results will be posted as soon as possible, after allowing a reasonable time for the alumni to respond.

If there is any life in the student body as a whole, it is time that a few results be shown. Fill in the "Suggestion Ballot" printed on the front page and either send it to THE NEW HAMPSHIRE office or drop it into THE NEW HAMPSHIRE mail box which is located on the left of the entrance to the President's office.

PROF. KALIJARVI SPEAKS AT DISCUSSION MEETING

The meeting of the Social Science Faculty Discussion group was held Monday night, at the home of Prof. Babcock. This group consists of those men who are interested in Social Science History Education, Psychology and Sociology. A very interesting talk was given by Prof. Kalijarvi; after which, some outstanding social problems were discussed. These meetings are held at least once a term, and prove to be a source of great interest.

FROM OUR MAIL BAG

To The Editor:

I am enclosing my suggestions for our official mascot—there is no hesitancy on my part; but one mascot of all those suggested seems fit for New Hampshire, and that mascot is the Bull. Whatever mascot is decided upon, one thing should be considered—we should select that mascot which can be displayed at our athletic contests. Situated as we are, we will always be able to get a bull from the college stock, and parade him around in all his dignity before our athletic crowds. Certainly that will be a spectacle to all strangers, and one which they will be sure to remark about in their own home towns. Wouldn't the University cherish this added publicity?

Why have a mascot that we cannot show? Doesn't a bull suggest all kinds of possible power—ferociousness? Which is going to stand the better show against the Brown Bear? the Durham Bull, or the Durham Husky? To my mind, none of the mascots suggested come anywhere near fulfilling requirements as does the Bull. We can always get him for display; he is emblematic of power and fight (and New Hampshire athletes DO fight 'till the final whistle); the name Bull is more or less connected with Durham, and if these be closely allied words why not invert them, and give emphasis to the Durham Bulls?

Personally, I am all for the Bulls—I don't want any poodle-dogs winning my victories.

To The Editor:

As I am a constant reader of The New Hampshire I am taking the liberty of writing you and I want to congratulate The New Hampshire Editorial Staff for the very interesting and fine paper that they publish. I enjoy the editorials in your paper in regard to changing the nickname of New Hampshire athletic teams. Personally I am in favor of the "New Hampshire Bulls." It has a great meaning. In the first place it casts no reflection on the college as an Agricultural school and if it did, all well and good. We all know that the Bull is a very fine specimen of Bovine Mammal, and when visiting a farm everyone gives the Bull plenty of room. He is the picture of strength and energy. By retaining the name of "New Hampshire Bulls," it will give the athletic teams strong prestige and it should be that way for they are becoming more prominent each year. Only recently here in Boston, it was an ex-New Hampshire Bull, if I am allowed to use the word, who showed Red Grange and his Chicago Bears up and played rings all around them. I want to say right here that New Hampshire University is a very fine institution and in my twenty years or more of following athletics I have never met a finer or better people than comprise the students and faculty of New Hampshire University. In friendliness and hospitality they cannot be surpassed and in the last few years owing to the grand work of President Hetzel the University has grown rapidly. I will venture to say that if the University can retain

INSTALL NEW POST OFFICE FOR FACULTY MEMBERS

A new post office for the faculty has been installed in Thompson Hall in the space formerly occupied by the fireplace in the wall of the Registrar's office. It will replace the old system of pigeon-holes, and resembles a miniature post office. It contains the usual numbered boxes and letter slots. By this new construction the disorder of mail around the old box will be dispensed with and the appearance of the corridor will be improved. Boxes are to be reserved for members of the faculty having offices in T. Hall and the Shops.

EXTENSION COURSE BEGINS AT CONCORD

Prof. Getchell Addresses Group of Shop Workers of B. & M. Railroad Movement Receives Unanimous Support of the Workers

A new extension course made its official start last Saturday at the Concord Y. M. C. A., when Prof. Getchell of the College of Technology addressed two groups of shop-workers employed by the Boston and Maine Railroad. This course, inaugurated through the efforts of Dean Case in conjunction with the personnel department of the railroad, will include the principles of practical mathematics and physics, with the prospect of an administrative course, should the members show marked ability.

According to Prof. Getchell, a bright future looms ahead of this movement toward industrial extension, as the idea has met with the unanimous support of all the concerns to which it has been suggested. The railroad has been using, up to this time, an educational system which emphasized the economic, rather than the practical aspect of Industrial advancement. The new course, in addition to opening a new field to its members, will fill a large gap which has hitherto existed.

Tie a tin to trouble

A TIDY red tin of Prince Albert, to be exact. There's the greatest little trouble-chaser in the known world. Smoke P. A. and pipe-grouches choose the nearest exit.

Yes, Sir, P. A. is right there with the Pollyanna stuff. Sunshine, gladness, the light heart, the bright smile. Because Prince Albert is the cheeriest, chummiest tobacco that ever tumbled into a briar or corncob.

Smoke P. A.—and smile. Cool, comfortable P. A. Fragrant, friendly P. A. Not a tongue-bite or throat-parch in a ton of it. The Prince Albert process hung the "No Admittance" sign on Bite and Parch the day the factory opened.

Get a tidy red tin of P. A. today and give pipe-worries the gate.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

Games Will Be Played at Night—Non-Frat Team Organized—Eleven Fraternities to Compete

The Intra-Mural Hockey League will soon be under way. The first game is scheduled for the twenty-fifth of this month. Eleven fraternities have signified their intention of joining the league and the schedules and rules were drawn up accordingly. The games will be played at night by the light of the huge arc lamps; the first game to begin at five-fifteen and the second at seven-fifteen.

Several of the fraternities have taken advantage of the few opportunities afforded them for pre-season practice. Next Sunday will be devoted to practices in the varsity rink by the various fraternities and the nonfrat players. Student interest in hockey has grown tremendously during the last few years and it is expected that the promotion of this league will uncover a number of would-be stars.

H. C. HU DISCUSSES UNREST IN CHINA

Harvard Deputation Team Member Analyzes Efforts of His Country—To Adjust Itself to New Conditions—Team Conducts Services at Community Church

China is like a huge elephant, trying to turn around and adjust itself to new conditions, according to Mr. H. C. Hu, a member of the Harvard deputation team, who spoke before an interested group at the Community House last Sunday evening. The other members of the team, who took charge of the Sunday morning services, were Mr. Cleve Hicks, Episcopal Student Pastor at Harvard, acting as leader, and Mr. Gardiner Day, a graduate of Yale, and a former teacher at Dartmouth and Columbia. Mr. Hu is a Chinese student, formerly "Y" Secretary at Peking, graduate of Peking University, and at present editor of the foremost journal of the Chinese youth movement in this country. Both Mr. Hu and Mr. Day are studying at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, a part of Harvard University.

Sunday evening, after a buffet lunch given by the Woman's Club, Mr. Hu spoke on the conditions of modern China and her critical attitude toward all possible solutions for her problems, with especial reference to the religion of Christian nations. The history and traditions of China make adjustment difficult. It is only the youth of China that are bringing about this adjustment, and in searching for a solution, they look askance at western civilization which professes Christian beliefs and does not use them. In fact, Mr. Hu claimed that the World War, with its terrific cruelties and unchristian acts, brought about the critical attitude that young China is taking today. Mr. Hu also pointed out several of the failings of religion in America, which are far more apparent to a foreigner. An open discussion was held after his talk, and Mr. Hu proved not only to be a clear thinker, but also a philosopher, by the way in which he answered questions.

These questions were the result of attempts made by the Y. M. C. A. to get student deputation teams from other campuses, in order to create interest on this campus in various vital problems.

MR. CELIAN UFFORD WILL ADDRESS JOINT MEETING

Mr. Celian Ufford of the Department of English will address a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. upon the topic, "A Sense of Humor," at the Community church Sunday evening at seven-thirty. The talk will be featured by the pleasing type of humorous monologues and anecdotes for which the speaker is noted. Lyle Farrell, '29, soloist, will entertain with vocal selections, and instrumental music will be furnished by Lewis Stark, '29 and Arnold Engel, '27.

BOOK AND SCROLL HOLDS MEETING AT SMITH HALL

A meeting of Book and Scroll was held Monday evening, January 18, in Smith Hall. The program consisted of a discussion of modern contemporary poets. Elinor Conant, '26, talked on the life and poems of Edna St. Vincent Millay. Hadyn Pearson, '26, talked on Vachel Lindsay.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, February 1, in Congreve Hall. The program will be in charge of a committee of which Eleanor Hunter is the chairman.

REPRESENTATIVE STUDENT
BALLOTING IN PROGRESS

The voting for the "Most Representative of the Blue and White" is in progress. Every purchaser of the 1927 Granite should deposit the ballot attached to their receipt in the mail box at the main bulletin board before January 23rd. It is desired by the Granite board that the balloting express the real opinion of the student body.

Any Senior who appeared in the 1926 Granite is eligible for this honor. Mr. Morse has again consented to record the balloting and arrange for the photographing of the "Most Representative of the Blue and White." This method proved very successful last year and the results were kept secret until the year book was ready for distribution. The most popular Seniors will appear in the 1927 Granite in full page photographs.

BOXERS START WORK FOR COMING SEASON

New Candidates Showing Power and Science—Fast and Heavy Hitting Bouts Assured—Smith and Boyd Only Lettermen

With only two returning lettermen as a nucleus around which to build the 1926 Boxing team, Coach Fred Brown is developing an aggressive, hard-hitting, and scientific aggregation. Specific attention is being given to the conditioning of the men, all of whom are speedily getting down to their class weights. Much training time is being spent in building up footwork and heavy punching ability. A great deal will depend on speedy and powerful body attacks, and in every bout aggressiveness is sure to be one of the main features.

The University is unlucky in the loss of "Doc" O'Gara, one of the fastest welters in this section, who is out because of a recent operation on his nose. Russell Whyte, last year's light weight letterman, is out because of injuries, and "Nicky" Colovis veteran 115 pounder, is unable to train this season.

Captain "Al" Smith, middle-weight champ, is fast gaining the polish of the finished product, and he is combining a mighty punch with his science and fast footwork.

"Jimmy" Boyd, the University featherweight champion, is the smooth, fast man he was last year, while an added stock of science and experience make him more dangerous than ever.

Men who look extremely good just at present, are rating in the following classes: Sargent and Necker, 175 lbs.; J. Reed, 160 lbs.; Sargent and Currie, 145 lbs.; Ahearn, McLeod, Higgins and Warren, 135 lbs.; Abrahamson, 125 lbs.; and Ricciardi, 115 lbs.

The question is sometimes asked: Where do young men get when they enter a large industrial organization? Have they opportunity to exercise creative talents? Or are they forced into narrow grooves?

This series of advertisements throws light on these questions. Each advertisement takes up the record of a college man who came with the Westinghouse Company within the past ten years, after graduation.

One Man's Summer Vacation

W. C. Goodwin

HAVE you ever seen a man dash out from a crowd along a busy street, stop a runaway team, and save many from danger? That wins newspaper headlines.

But it is only two horses—and it happens once in a blue moon. Every hour in industry horsepower run into the millions is tamed to man's control. Runaway apparatus is instantly checked. Electric controllers protect operators and the public. They safeguard motor and machine.

Thereby hangs a story of control development, involving W. C. Goodwin, Penn State 1915. Goodwin spent his summer vacations tinkering with rotating apparatus—testing motors and the like. He came to Westinghouse. Control Engineering was a magnet for Goodwin, even during his training period. When the separate Control Engineering Department was formed in 1917 Goodwin was in it. Next he was made engineer in charge of the section to design and develop new control equipment. Now he has nine assistants.

The Control Engineer may be called upon, as Goodwin was, to meet such an emergency as this: The war was on. Battleships were to be propelled by electricity. Upon the starting, reversing or stopping of the main propulsion motors without the loss of a second, the fate of the ship might depend. Goodwin designed control to do that.

Or in industrial application, the Control Engineer may add to human safety, as Goodwin did. In rubber mills, hands of operators sometimes are caught between powerful rollers. A fraction of a second may mean an arm—or a life. Goodwin's new combination control apparatus has greatly reduced the time in stopping the motor.

Control Engineers must know the industry with which they are dealing—steel, rubber, textile, railroad—and then literally "fit the control to each order." In seeing the job through the customer's eyes—Control Engineers find themselves most at home with Westinghouse.

YEARLINGS BEATEN BY MAINE FRESHMEN

Opponents Take Fast Game by 24-12
—Hobbs and Folsom Star for Winners—Landauer and Clement Play Well for N. H.

In the second contest of the season, the Freshman team lost to the Maine yearlings by a score of 24-12, at the big gym, Friday night. The game was much faster than that of last week. The Maine 1929 team showed better team-work and had an accurate eye on the baskets, missing only a small percentage of their shots. The blue and white freshmen have improved since the opening game, exhibiting a stronger defense and a fighting offense. But they could not start an effective passing game which would win the contest for them. Both sides took many long shots from the first line of defense, rather than try to break through the five man defense which both teams used.

The game started off with both sides scoring immediately by dropping in long shots from the center of the floor. Then they settled down to steady basketball with Maine taking the lead at once in an organized attack. Bruce went in at guard for McNamara, who was having a hard time covering the Maine forwards. Still the score rolled up for Maine. The half ended decidedly in favor of the Pine Tree staters with the score 16-6.

In the second half the Maine Frosh gained a basket over the number that "Lang" Pernald's team shot. During the last five minutes the game was played slowly, and the New Hampshire scrubs failed to come out of their defense to take the ball from Maine.

Captain Hobbs led his team in scoring with five goals from the floor and two from the foul line. He will be remembered by the fans as the star forward with the Hebron Academy team of last year. Folsom managed to get the jump on Neal nearly every time and also played a good floor game, feeding the Maine forwards with passes. Few substitutes got in the game for Maine.

Landauer, as acting captain, played the entire game for New Hampshire 1929 team at guard. His height enabled him to guard his corner very effectively against the Maine offense. He also sunk two long shots from the center circle. Clement played a hard game, breaking up many passes. Neal looked better at guard position than at center. Numerous subs were used during the game.

Tomorrow night the freshmen meet the strong Hebron Academy team. Last year this team defeated the freshmen by an overwhelming score.

RELAY TEAM MEETS EXETER SATURDAY

Initial Race of Year Promises to Be Fast—Two More Contests on Season Schedule

The Varsity Relay Team has been training intensely this week in preparation for their practice game with the Exeter Academy quartet at Exeter, Saturday afternoon. The members of the squad are shaping into condition. Atkins has been out but a few days. Brown and McManus are not yet in condition to run. The members of the squad who may represent the Blue and White has narrowed down to the following six men: Toolin, Daland, Barclay, Van Allen, Gray and Lamont. Of these men Gray is the only man who has faced Varsity competition before this season. These runners have all shown up well in practice and a fast outfit is assured.

The Exeter men present a very formidable team. They have a veteran team that has already attained a notable reputation, and a hard battle is expected.

Manager Godbeer announced that the final meets will take place at Portland, Me., Feb. 15, and at Lewiston, Feb. 20.

HOCKEY TEAM LOSES OPENER TO EXETER

Blewett and Percival Star for New Hampshire as Town Players Win—Game Proves Fast and Interesting

The visiting town team from Exeter proved too fast for the varsity hockey six last Saturday. New Hampshire was defeated by a score of 3 to 2. Blewett starred on the defensive for the varsity while Percival's work on the ice was exceptionally fine. Thurston, the diminutive Exeter center, was the most aggressive on the winning team.

At the end of the first period the score was 2 to 1 in favor of the visiting team, but Percival, the star N.
H. center, after only a few minutes of the second period had been played, scored a beautiful goal from the side of the rink which sailed into the net like a flash of lightning. The winning goal for Exeter was scored by Stock on a side shot which bounded off the goal posts and into the net.

The work of the entire New Hampshire team was very satisfactory.
Several of the players were ruled off
the ice at various times by Referee Swasey for illegitimate playing but most of the offences were minor ones.
Ide and Dearington played well in the wing positions and Captain Fudge and Applin proved to be strong on the defense.
